

Senior Energy Engineer

Experienced Senior Engineer with specialty in energy efficiency. Minimum education required: BS in engineering or architecture & 5 years energy efficiency experience. Must have excellent communication skills, be able to create technical/engineering spreadsheet tools, be able to create technical reports, be able to manage multiple projects, communicate with customers, as well as staff, on a technical and professional level, and review energy efficiency reports on a technical level. 80% office time, 20% field time includes attending board meetings; conducting presentations, inspecting job sites. Expenses paid. Prior experience with NYSERDA helpful, but not required. Must be computer proficient. Knowledge of HVAC and lighting is necessary. Company located in Goshen, NY, projects vary throughout metro NYC area.